Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon.

Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' is a sick man's friend," writes Geo. N. Turner, Esq., (Ex. Financial Secretary International Brotherhood of Teamsters), 2236 California Street, Denver, Colo. "For the past seven years my health gradually failed. I lost my appetite, became nervous and debilitated, very despondent and unable to sleep. No medicine helped me until I tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It put new life into my veins and increased vitality until I could once more enjoy life and attend to my business. Eight bottles affected a complete cure and gladly do I recommend it."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets—only one or two a day will regulate and cleanse and invigorate a foul, bad Stomach, torpid Liver or sluggish Bowels.

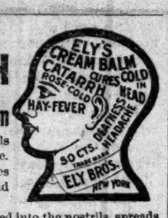

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propogates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalps of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Nasal CATARRH
In all its stages.
Ely's Cream Balm

cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Like a Comet

This famous remedy does for the stomach that which it is unable to do for itself, even if but slightly disordered or overburdened.

In the sky comes the star of health to the weak and weary despondent dyspeptic, curing all stomach troubles and digestive disorders.

Kodol supplies the natural juices of digestion and does the work of the stomach, relaxing the nervous tension, while the inflamed muscles and membranes of that organ are allowed to rest and heal. It cures indigestion, flatulence, palpitation of the heart, nervous dyspepsia and all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying and strengthening the glands, membranes of the stomach and digestive organs.

THE OMNIBUS CLAIMS BILL.

Both Houses of Congress have passed the omnibus claims bill which carries appropriations of thousands of dollars for the payment of claims against the government, which have been pending for upwards of thirty years. The beneficiaries are many in number and are well scattered throughout the State. The majority of the claims are for property taken by the government after the close of the war, but in some cases citizens of the State loyal to the United States government during the war are paid. Church property paid for was either destroyed or damaged during the war, or after the close of hostilities. The following is a list of the claimants from this section of Virginia.

Levi M. Hummer, administrator of Benjamin A Hummer, deceased, of Fairfax county, $475.

Robert Whitacre, administrator of the estate of Agnes Randall, deceased, of Fauquier county, $385.

Saleswomen's Peril
GRAVE DISEASES, DUE TO STANDING
Facts About Miss Merkley's Dangerous Illness and Complete Cure

Have you ever thought why so many women or girls rather walk an hour than stand still for ten minutes?

Miss Margret Merkley

It is because most women suffer from some derangement of their delicate organism, the discomfort of which is less trying when they are in motion than when standing.

In some states laws compel employers to provide resting places for their female employees.

But no amount of law can regulate the hard tasks of these women. They must get the strength which this work demands or run the risk of serious diseases and the surgeon's knife.

Read about the experience of Miss Margret Merkley, 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis.:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Gradual loss of strength, nervousness, bearing-down pains and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said I had ovarian trouble and ulceration of the womb, and advised an operation if I wanted to get well. I objected to this and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I soon found that all the good things said about this great medicine were true. The ulceration soon healed, backache, headache and nervousness disappeared, and in a short time I was strong, vigorous and perfectly well. I wish every working girl who suffers would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a vegetable tonic which invigorates and strengthens the entire female organism, and will produce the same beneficial results in the case of any sick woman as with Miss Merkley.

A Touching Story

is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyler, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

The Proper Coffee—Pure, Uniform, Delicious and Healthful.

For several months past the Southern Coffee & Spice Company, of Washington, has been supplying many of the grocers of Alexandria with coffee, teas and spices.

This company has now decided to place its popular blends, "BOW KNOT" Coffee in one pound tins and "SOUTHRON LEADER" in one pound packages on the market here.

The "Bow Knot" M. & J. Blend, to introduce, will be sold at 30 cents per pound and is the best procurable, and superior to the average 35 cent or 40 cent coffee, designed for high class trade.

The "Southron Leader" is a popular premium coffee sold at 20 cents per pound, equal to the ordinary 25 cent coffee.

Ten coupons returned to the grocer secures one pound of this coffee free.

Ask your grocer for these coffees and be convinced. feb11

REVELATIONS of some recent actions on the part of the Panama Canal Commission in connection with the management of the Panama Railroad startled the House committee on commerce yesterday. Members of the committee, which is investigating the management of the railroad, were dumfounded when E. A. Drake, vice president and secretary of the corporation, calmly informed them that the Panama canal commissioners were stockholders in the road, and as such received dividends on its stock and were, moreover, members of the road's board of directors, and in that capacity took fat fees for attending meetings of the directors. The board of directors, Mr. Drake told the committee, met twice a month, and for attending these meetings each director, including the canal commissioners who served in that capacity, received a fee of $25. Then there was an executive committee which met twice a week, and the members of the canal commission who served thereon received fees of $10 for each meeting. Altogether, Mr. Drake figured out the members of the canal commission in their capacity of directors or members of the executive committee of the Panama Railroad were entitled to fees running up to about $1,600 a year in addition to their salaries of $12,000 a year from the canal commission. Mr. Drake explained in answer to questions by astonished members of the investigating committee that the canal commissioners had only taken these fees after consultation with some mysterious "power that rules," which seems to have told the commissioners it was "all right." It seems that graft follows the flag.

THE curtain was rung down in the joint session of the Delaware Legislature yesterday, it is hoped, on the possibility of J. Edward Addicks ever representing that State in the United States Senate. Six union republican members deserted their standard-bearer. Four of them took up the cry "The King is dead!" "Long live the King!" These four supported the man generally regarded as the political successor of J. Edward Addicks—T. Coleman duPont, the head of the great powder-making concern of Wilmington. In the twinkling of an eye the gigantic corrupt political organization, reared at the expense of hundreds of thousands of dollars, that required a dozen years in building, held together by its stupendous power for political evil, fell into fragments and left some of its loyal devotees weeping in their anguish and despair. In describing the scene the Philadelphia Record says:

A long, lank, lean, cadaverous-looking Senator, representing the most corrupt and debauched political spot in Delaware, if not in the country, where men sell their votes as a grocer sells sugar, pronounced the name of "T. Coleman duPont" for United States Senator. From that moment J. Edward Addicks' fate was sealed. The chickens he had nurtured had come home to roost. The magic chains of gold by which Addicks has held his grip on Delaware politics had snapped merely because its supply is exhausted.

The only card that Addicks can now play is that of revenge—to hold up the legislature and prevent the election of any of the regular republican leaders who have finally encompassed his downfall.

MEMBERS OF the House who are now interested in the omnibus public building bill, are making a desperate effort to force Speaker Cannon to grant a rule for the consideration of the bill, although the Speaker has declared such strong opposition to it. These members got up a petition yesterday addressed to the committee on rules urging that a rule be reported setting aside time for considering the building bill, which they feel confident will command votes enough to pass if they can only succeed in getting it up in the House. A member of the delegation of each important State was designated to get the signatures of his colleagues to the petition. Usually the member thus designated was a man who has in the building bill an appropriation for a new building in some town in his district. The petition was very generally signed, and there is, therefore, little doubt it will go to the committee on rules with the names of considerably more than a majority of the total membership of the House attached to it. Their showing is expected to force the hands of the Speaker so that he will feel constrained to allow the committee on rules to fix a time for consideration of the bill. This will partially insure its passage through the House, but there is little doubt it will be squelched by the steering committee in the Senate, so the knowing ones in Washington say that after all no omnibus building bill will become a law during this session of Congress.

DECLARING that it was not an attempt to establish a monopoly, but an attempt to compel a monopoly already existing to be decent, Governor Hoch, of Kansas, has signed the bill appropriating $200,000 for the erection and maintenance of a State oil refinery, with a capacity of 2,000 barrels a day. The signing of this measure will make it possible for Kansas to begin in earnest the fight started in that State recently against the Standard Oil Company.

HARBORMASTER SUTTON, of Washington, is not in favor of substituting the Norfolk steamer for the thirteen tugs now fitted up with ice-breaking plows to get the ice out of the Potomac. He believes that better work can be done by the tugs, but he is one of the few who believes so.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Feb. 18.

With regard to the statements made before the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce yesterday to the effect that members of the Isthmian Canal Commission, as directors of the Panama Railroad Company, had received fees for attending directors' meetings and that they owned shares of stock in that railroad and received dividends thereon, Admiral Walker, chairman of the canal commission, said today: "It is an attempt to throw mud upon the commission and is in no way justified. The facts are these: Some of the members of the commission believed that we would be justified in accepting the usual fees which are given to directors of all corporations in order to ensure their attendance, and others thought, in view of the president's directions, that members of the commission should not receive anything except their salaries that we ought not to accept them. Because of this difference of opinion, I took the question up to the President himself. He said that the acceptance of these fees was a small matter, which had not entered into his mind when he issues his order, and he authorized me on behalf of the commission to accept the directors' fees. It would have been embarrassing to the old directors who had been accustomed to receiving these fees, had we refused to accept them. So far as the purchase of the stock was concerned I had the full authority of the Secretary of War. I received an offer to sell 100 shares of stock in the Panama Railroad, and later an offer of one share. I consulted the the Secretary of War, and he authorized me to purchase them at par. I did so and assigned one share to each of the members of the commission. The shares were bought by me as chairman of the Isthmian Canal commission, and out of the funds of the government. They are held by us as trustees of the government. When the dividend of five per cent was declared the checks in payment thereof were received by us, and were turned over to the secretary of war by whom they were deposited to the credit of of the government. That is all there is to it." "It's a public necessity that the United States government acquire the outstanding stock of the Panama Railroad," said Wm. Cromwell, attorney for the Panama Railroad Company, who followed Drake on the stand.

By order of the Secretary of War three large recruiting depots are to be established. One will be at Columbus barracks, Ohio, where recruits for the infantry will be mobilized and given a course of training before being assigned to regiments; a second for cavalry recruits at Jefferson barracks, Mo., and a third for artillery and infantry recruits at Fort Slocum, New York. By the order which establishes these big recruiting depots the smaller depots in cities are done away with.

The portrait of the Empress Dowager of China which was exhibited at the St. Louis Louisiana Purchase Exposition, was received by President Roosevelt this afternoon in behalf of the United States Government. Sir Chentung Liang-Cheng the Chinese Minister made the presentation speech and the President made appropriate reply.

Business men, artisans, politicians, hotel and boarding housekeepers and all classes and conditions of men and women in Washington are rushing their preparations for the inauguration.

A bill aimed at the Standard Oil trust, was introduced in the House today, by Representative Hearst. It declares that every contract or agreement that creates or maintains a monopoly in any product of labor or of the soil, is illegal, and that the trade between states in such monopolized products is prohibited. A penalty of not more than $5,000, fine, or not more than one year's imprisonment, or both, is provided for violations of the proposed law.

Senator Foraker has succeeded in securing the adoption by the Senate committee on Postoffices and post roads, of his amendment to the Postoffice bill, providing for the extension of the pneumatic tube mail service.

The House committee on merchant marine and fisheries today authorized favorable report on the Littlefield bill, exempting sailing vessels from employing licensed mates. This was the last meeting of the committee for the session and resolutions, offered by the democrats, were adopted thanking Chairman Grosvenor for his fairness and courtesy.

Both houses of Congress will work under a full head of steam next week. Less than twelve legislative days remain and there is much that must done to obviate the necessity of an extra session, which would follow in the event of the failure of any one or the great supply bills. Thus far but one of these has become a law, not counting a small urgent deficiency bill which was passed—the one providing for the needs of the legislative, judicial and executive departments. It is the intention of the House to pass all the other appropriation bills next week. The river and harbor bill will probably also be called and the present intention is to pass it, although failure to pass this bill will not necessitate an extra session. Because of the shortness of the session the time of the Senate next week, except that which will be devoted to the Swayne impeachment case, will be entirely consumed in the consideration of appropriation bills and conference reports on measures which, like the statehood bill, have been amended in one branch of Congress and requires the concurrent action of both before they become laws. In view of the differences which have arisen between the House and Senate regarding the admissions of new States, the indications are now that the bill will fail entirely and there will be no new stars added to the national flag.

Trains Blocked.

Jamestown, N. Y., Feb. 18.—All railroads reaching Jamestown, with the exception of the main line of the Erie, are tied up today with snow. The Cincinnati train on the Buffalo & Southwestern due in Jamestown at 4:30 this morning is stalled at Eden Centre in drifts as high as the car roofs. Five locomotives could not move it. A telephone wire was tapped and a telephone was placed in a coach. By this means passengers communicated with friends in Buffalo and Jamestown. Two bridal couples are on board the train. The Erie Railroad is using a rotary on the main line in this section, thus keeping the tracks clear. The Jamestown, Chautauqua and Lake Erie and the Dunkirk, Allegheny Valley and Pittsburg roads are completely blockaded.

News of the Day.

The special committee of the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad refused to grant the demand of the locomotive firemen; and a strike is expected.

Managers of the Putiloff Iron Works, in St. Petersburg, have refused the strikers credit at the company's stores, and 10,000 persons are thus deprived of the means of obtaining food.

Six armed robbers yesterday entered a delivery office in Chicago, held up the employes and compelled a clerk, at the point of a revolver, to open a safe, from which they secured $800. They made their escape.

Representative John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, minority leader of the House, is credited in New Orleans with having ambitions to succeed Senator Money. The latter has told his friends that he intends to retire at the end of his present term.

Virginia News.

Mr. Albert Smith died Friday night at his home, in Fredericksburg, aged 55 years.

J. A. Downing, of Fauquier county has announced his candidacy for the office of floater delegate to the legislature from the counties of Loudoun and Fauquier.

Mr. Thomas E. Graves, one of the most prominent citizens of Orange county, died at his home near Za, in that county, Wednesday, of blood poisoning, aged 68 years.

Mrs. Mary E. Garner, who has been sick for some time, died at "Clifton," King George county, Thursday afternoon. Her husband, the late G. A. Garner, died about a year ago. Four sons survive her.

In the Circuit Court Pittsylvania yesterday the case of Karn and Forbes against the Southern Railway Company for damages by burning, a judgment of $1,500 for plaintiff was rendered. Sixty decrees in chancey causes were granted. The court adjourned for the term last night.

Senator Martin has introduced bills in the Senate providing for the settlement of several civil war claims in Virginia, as follows: George W. Fry, Loudoun county, $1,375; Richmond M. Harrison, deceased, Prince George county, $6,450; Luther H. Potterfield, Loudoun county, $2,500.

Conway Grove, the home of H. C. Spillman, of Warrenton, was narrowly saved from burning yesterday morning by the prompt work of the citizens of that place. Part of the second story was badly damaged by smoke and flames. At present Mr. and Mrs. Labouisse, of New York, are occupying the residence. Many of their personal effects were ruined.

A dispatch from Richmond says: The republicans have begun work to ascertain how many of their voters are on the poll lists, and they will see that the capitation taxes of those required to pay are paid, so that every vote may be polled. If Judge L. L. Lewis does not become the candidate of the republicans for Governor he will go counter to the wishes of a large majority of his party. He is now being urged to consent. Judge Lewis, who is United States District Attorney, does not seem to desire to make the race, but it is believed that he will agree if he can be brought to see that it is for the best interests of his party.

Gen. Thomas L. Rosser will certainly be the next postmaster of Charlottesville. He told republicans yesterday that he had decided to accept the appointment and would retain in the postoffice the same force that now serves the public.

William Anderson, proprietor of the large distillery, "Willow Spring," died Wednesday night at his home near Delaplane.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate yesterday passed the bill appropriating $9,940,000 for the District of Columbia and the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, carrying $2,156,000. The District bill had been before the Senate for several days and had been much debated. The diplomatic bill received the attention of the Senate for only twelve minutes, and was passed without discussion. One witness was heard during the day in the Swayne impeachment trial, and an hour was spent in secret session in an ineffectual effort to determine the admissibility as evidence of Judge Swayne's statement before a committee of the House.

In order to facilitate action at this session on the statehood bill the House yesterday, as stated in the Gazette of that day, passed a resolution sending that measure, as amended by the Senate, directly into conference without an opportunity being afforded to debate it. With the exception of Mr. McLachlan, of California, who voted with the democrats, party lines were strictly drawn.

There were several hours' discussion on the navy appropriation bill.

SPORTING NOTICES.

Temple Gwathney, of New York, city, has purchased from E. M. Spilman, jr., of Warrenton, Knight of Elway, a handsome roadster, for $1,600.

The Aldie Horse Breeding Association of Aldie, Loudoun county, has been organized with the following officers; President, F. A. Ish, Aldie, Va.; secretary, W. J. Di Zerega; treasurer, and general manager, Augustus Di Zerega; directors, W. L. Elgin, of Landmark; W. G. Galleher, of Evergreen Mills; J. W. George of Levy; C. G. Hathaway, of Middleburg, Va., and Augustus Di Zerega, of Aldie. The object of the association is to import pure-bred Percheron stock into Loudoun and adjacent counties.

Harry Westacott, a Virginia crack shot and leading sportsman, is authority for the statement that there is now in hand $25,000 to be used by sportsmen in fighting an effort to be made in the coming legislature for the passage of laws suppressing the killing of live game in Virginia for sport. The fight will be made by the Virginia Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, which will seek the adoption of such laws for the protection of game from sportsmen as are now in force in Massachusetts and other states.

RUSSIAN TERRORISTS.

Two hours before the news of the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius was received in New York yesterday Joseph Barondess, orator and revolutionary sympathizer, predicted the use of dynamite in Russia as a sequel to the government's rumored plan to exile Maxime Gorky. Mr. Barondess had said: "Exile of Gorky would be the greatest blow that the Russian government officials can strike against themselves. It will be a great victory of freedom. Dynamite will be resorted to. In all parts of the civilized world funds are being raised to enter a more emphatic protest against Russian tyranny. Money for the purpose of ammunition is being raised in Germany, France, England and in this country."

The prediction of Mr. Barondess is a remarkable coincidence, coming, as it did, but a few hours before a bomb was exploded under the carriage of the "best hated man" in Russia.

"Grand Duke Sergius was executed for a crime committed on December 19, 1904. He was warned not to interfere with a popular demonstration which took place that day in Moscow. He did interfere; blood was shed in the streets, and Sergius was promptly tried and found guilty."

This statement was made yesterday afternoon by Dr. Charles Rayevsky, 232 Henry street, in New York, the American representative of the committee militant of the Russian socialist revolutionary party. It was this organization which also killed Von Plehve and Czar Alexander II.

The news of the tragedy in which Gaand Duke Sergius was blown up created a tremendous sensation in St. Petersburg yesterday. The tragedy was no great surprise, as it was known that the terrorists had already condemned the Grand Duke to death, and ever since the affair of January 22, the inauguration of a bomb-throwing campaign had been anticipated.

The news of the assassination of the Grand Duke reached Tsarskoe-Selo while the imperial family was entertaining Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia. It created the greatest consternation. The Emperor is reported to have been completely prostrated. All festivities in honor of the Prussian guest were at once abandoned.

Yesterday afternoon Ambassador McCormick and the other ambassadors drove to the palace to express their official condolences, also leaving their cards at the palaces of the various members of the imperial family.

The explosion incident to the killing of the Duke shook the city. The Grand Duke's head was blown off and his body torn to pieces. His coachman was also killed.

The secret death-dealing agencies of the terrorist element of the revolutionary party in Russia have struck a terrible blow.

Revolutionary agents in Vienna say the list of those condemned to share the fate of Sergius include: The Czar, Nicholas II, Grand Duke Vladimir, brother of Sergius; Governor General Trepoff of St. Petersburg, Grand Duke Alexis and Procurator of the Holy Synod Pobiedonostseff.

Later advices from St. Petersburg say the Czar and his ministers have decided to proclaim the zemsky sobor, or land parliament, on February 22.

THE ROMANOFFS.

The reigning family of Russia dates back to 1613, when Michael Fedorovitz, the first of the house of Romanoffs, ascended the throne. For a span of seven centuries the Russians had been under the rule of the Rurie dynasty. Feodor I., the last of the Ruries, was assassinated, and that gave the Romanoffs the chance they had long sought.

Michael Fedorovitz reigned until his death, in 1682, and was succeeded by Ivan and Peter I., who came to be known in history as Peter the Great. Seven years later Peter became the sole sovereign. At the time of his death, in 1725, the Russian court was divided into two powerful parties. The one demanded that the crown should go to Peter, the son of Alexis, brother of Peter the Great, who had been put to death by his own brother's decree. The other faction called for the crowning of Catherine, the widow of Peter the Great.

The latter finally triumphed, but her reign was a brief one, for she died within two years. Before her death she nominated Peter, the son of Alexis, to be her successor. In 1730 he was deposed and the crown given to Anne of Courland, daughter of Peter the Great and Catherine. Peter II. was, in fact, the last of the Romanoffs, for the male line became extinct with his death, but the name was perserved through the accession of Anne of Courland, who was the mother of the unfortunate Peter III.

Peter III. was dethroned and assassinated in 1762. He was succeeded by his widow, Catherine II. She reigned until 1796. On her death in that year she was succeeded by Paul, who became a maniac, and was assassinated in 1801. Alexander I. was crowned, and his reign continued until his death, in 1825. The next in line of accession was Nicholas I. For 30 years he ruled over the Russians, and saw one of the stormiest of all periods of the country's history. He was succeeded by Alexander II. in 1855. The reign of Alexander II. was full of vicissitudes. The nihilists had become emboldened by centuries of misrule and tyranny, and throughout his reign they were plotting his death. In 1880 a dynamite bomb was exploded under the royal dining-room, and the only reason the Czar and all the royal family were not killed was because they happened to be a few minutes later than usual for dinner. A year later Alexander II. was assassinated. A nihilist threw a bomb under his carriage, tearing him to pieces. His successor, Alexander III., was marked by the nihilists several times for assassination, but all of their plots failed. Many of them were sent to the mines of Siberia for life and others put to death.

The present Czar came to the throne in 1894. Nicholas II. is the eldest son of Alexander III. He was born in 1868. Just 26 days after he was crowned Czar of all the Russias he wedded Princess Alix of Hesse. Only a few months ago a son and heir was born to the reigning family amid great popular rejoicing.

Today's Telegraphic News

THE ASSASSINATION OF GRAND DUKE SERGIUS.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—It is not generally believed that the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius at Moscow yesterday will cause the Czar to reconsider the promulgation of reforms for the workingmen. On the other hand, it is thought probable that the opposite effect will result, and a new era be hastened by the act, which is taken to indicate the desperate state of mind of the revolutionary element.

It has transpired that Sazoneff, the assassin of M. Plehve, wrote a confession while confined in the Peter and Paul fortress, giving in detail the aims of the terrorists, one of which was the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius.

Moscow, Feb. 18.—The assassin of Grand Duke Sergius is said to have confessed that he belongs to the workmen's social democracy. He added: "I accomplished the will of the executive."

Odessa, Russia, Feb. 18.—Leaflets are being circulated this morning signed by the south Russian section of the social democratic revolutionaries, announcing the death of Grand Duke Sergius, and concluding: "The event marks the beginning of a war of reprisals forced on the people by the unbending stubbornness and intolerably oppressive rule of the present regime."

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—It is announced that the funeral of the Grand Duke Sergius will be held several days hence, within the Kremlin at Moscow. The Czar and the Imperial family will be represented at the obsequies by the Grand Duke Alexis.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—A memorial service for Grand Duke Sergius was held at the St. Isaacs Cathedral today. A large congregation was present, which included many grand dukes and other notables personages.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—The council of the empire, it is announced, will hold an extraordinary sitting to consider the situation resulting from the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius.

Paris, Feb. 18.—Reliable information has been received in well informed circles here outlining the intentions of the Russian revolutionists. A period of relative calm is expected to succeed the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius. The real crisis will come in the spring, when the lack of ice and snow will permit it. A serious revolutionary movement is as impossible now as a battle is impossible in Manchuria. The socialist and army leaders are in identical positions held back by the rigor of the winter. Meantime strikes will continue here and there, with partial resumptions interrupted at intervals. It is known the nihilists have selected Grand Duke Vladimir as their next victim. Governor General Trepoff of St. Petersburg will follow him, according to the nihilist plans, and then will come M. Pobiedonotzeff, the Procurator of the Holy Synod. The Czar's turn will not come until after he has signed the constitution, since his signature is necessary. In this the revolutionists will be following a procedure similar to that followed in the case of Louis XXI, who was allowed to sign the French constitution in 1791 before he was guillotined. It is anticipated here that the result of this knowledge will be that the Russian government will resort to reaction in the hope of sparing lives of prominent men. The prospects of reform, it is thought, will be indefinitely postponed.

St Petersburg, Feb. 18.—The natural alarm caused among government officials by the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius, and the subsequent disclosure of widespread revolutionary sentiment, has been increased here by the scattering broadcast of revolutionary literature among the workmen today. This literature appeals to the workers to rise against their oppressors.

Bold Robbery.

New York, Feb. 18.—Within two doors of their home, No. 722 east 138th street, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cornish were held up by a daring robber early today and Mrs. Cornish was robbed of a $5,000 diamond brooch which she wore at her neck. In trying to defend his wife, Mr. Cornish, who is reputed to be a millionaire, was shot at, and narrowly escaped instant death. Mrs. Cornish fought with her husband against the highwayman, and but for her resistance the thief would probably have secured several other valuable jewels which she wore. Mr. and Mrs. Cornish attended a dance last night, and started for home at 2 o'clock this morning. Alighting from a street car, near their residence, they did not notice a stranger who left the car just after them. As the couple were nearing the house, Mrs. Cornish was suddenly attacked from the rear. Two arms were thrown about her neck, and before she could release herself she was partially thrown to the pavement, and her brooch torn from her breast. Before the woman arose, the thief made a dash for Mr. Cornish, who had been stunned by the sudden assault. Mrs. Cornish arose and threw herself between the men. The thief aimed a blow at her with his fist, and as Mr. Cornish reached to stay his hand, he drew a revolver and fired twice. One bullet passed through Cornish's hat, and another passed through the right shoulder. The thief then hit Cornish on the head with the butt end of the revolver, knocking him down and fled. The policemen who were about a block away heard the shots and screams of Mrs. Cornish. They ran to the scene, and took up the trail of the bandit, who was running rapidly. The thief ran to Emanuel Lutheran Church and took up a position behind a pilar in front of the church and held the officers at bay. When the officers began closing in on him, the thief jumped a fence into the vacant lot the officers following. Several shots were exchanged but none took effect. The badit then jumped the fence at the other side of the lot and disappeared.

Her Gown a Blaze of Jewelry.

London, Feb. 18—The first court of the year, which was essentially a diplomatic function, was held in Buckingham Palace last night. It was exceptionally brilliant. King Edward and Queen Alexandra were accompanied by the royal circle, the only absentee being Princess Victoria, who has not yet recovered from a recent operation. The American presentations were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Chadwick, Mrs. Shaw, formerly Miss Langhorne, of Virginia; Mrs. George Audenreid, of Philadelphia; Miss Barbara Spofford, of New York; Miss Blanche Rumsey and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Levi, of New York. The front of Queen Alexandra's gown was a blaze of jewels, with a beautiful single diamond of great size in the centre of the corsage. Mrs. Shaw wore a lovely gown of cloth of silver. The Duchess of Marlborough also was notable in cloth of gold and Venetian lace, wearing the famous Vanderbilt pearls and tiara of diamonds.

An Aide for Mrs. Goelet.

Berlin, Feb. 18.—Emperor William has detailed a naval lieutenant from the intelligence office to act as aide to Mrs Robert Goelet, of New York, who is now in this city, and show her the objects of interest at Potsdam. Mrs. Goelet, who was Miss Elsie Whelen, of Philadelphia, probably will remain in Berlin a fortnight and attend the court ball. She has been having a famous time in her European tour, her renown as a beauty and the wife of a young American multi-millionaire having preceded her, opening the doors of exclusive society and even of royalty. Mr. Goelet is a son of Mrs. Ogden Goelet, a brother to the Duchess of Roxburghe and a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson. He is also a nephew, on his mother's side, of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, jr., Mrs. Orme Wilson, nee Astor, and Lady Michael Herbert, widow of the former British Ambassador.

Russians Concentrating.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—The Russians are concentrating in force in front of General Kuroki's position to the south of Mukden, preparatory to starting an offensive movement.

General Oku's Headquartes via Fusan, Feb. 18.—Fifteen thousand Russian calvary and 500 infantry with twenty guns, who had moved South to both banks of the Liao river, began a retreat on this day. They are now twelve miles northwest of Siaopeho. The Japanese pursued them and inflicted heavy damages.

Tokio, Feb. 18.—The Russians shelled Field Marshall Oyama's centre on Thursday and Friday.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Disintegration of standard oil and its final collapse as a result of the investigation ordered by President Roosevelt is predicted by Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston.

Gen. Morteza Khan, Minister Plenipotentiary, from Persia, and Mesroo Nevton Khan Bey, of the Persia Legation was arrested in New York today for fast riding in an automobile.

Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was promptly on hand this morning in Cleveland, O., when the suit of her creditors was resumed before Referee Remington of the Federal Bankruptcy Court. Scores of claims against her were presented to secure her testimony as to their validity. The amount of this claim is $171,783.

The Federal Sugar Refining Company has filed in the Secretary of State's office at Trenton, N. J., here a certificate, reducing its capital stock from $50,000,000 to $25,000,000. This is to be done by reducing the common stock, from $30,000,000 to $15,000,000 and the first preferred stock from $20,000,000 to $10,000,000.

To prevent Oyster Bay, the summer home of President Roosevelt, from being the scene of a lynching, a negro, known as "Diamond Dick," who had made a murderous assault upon Dr. Louis Keyser an elderly white man early today, was hustled out of town by the authorities and taken to Nassau county jail, at Mineola.

Peace Talk

Even in the midst of the excitement caused by the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius there has been a noticeable and sudden revival of peace talk in St. Petersburg. It is even intimated that Prince Frederick Leopold of Prussia is the bearer of personal representations from Emperor William on this subject. While it is positively known that the question of peace was discussed between Emperor Nicholas and Prince Frederick Leopold yesterday, it is impossible to ascertain what, if any, conclusions were reached.

The Associated Press learns on exceptional authority that the question of peace was formally considered by Emperor Nicholas and his ministers at the conference held at Tsarskoe Selo Thursday. No particulars are obtainable, as before the discussion began the Emperor exacted from each one present a solemn promise not to divulge the slightest hint of what transpired. The belief is, however, that the possible conditions and terms were under consideration.

It is suggested in high quarters that some intimation of terms has reached the Russian government from Japan, although it is certain that it did not come through the regular diplomatic channels.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 18.

SENATE.

A filibuster by the minority to prevent the majority from forcing immediate action on the statehood bill was narrowly averted in the Senate today. It was upon the receipt of a message from the House of Representatives, asking for a conference on the statehood bill. Mr. Beveridge moved that the Senate agree to the conference asked for and that the conferees be appointed.

Mr. Gorman, suggested that the bill go over.

Mr. Beveridge, Mr. Allison and Mr. Lodge, objected to delay.

Mr. Gorman thought no good could be accomplished by undue haste.

The President pro tem. ruled that the request of the House could not be postponed upon a single objection.

Mr Teller pointed out significantly, how, if consideration was forced different steps could be taken with the statehood bills, "to discuss it at great length."

Mr Foraker, and others urged Mr. Beveridge to permit the message to go over until Monday.

Mr. Beveridge again refused.

"Then" announced Mr. Foraker "there will be no action until Monday. We will ask no more favors, and will extend none. We will debate this subject until adjournment."

"That's what we will do," declared Mr. Teller.

Mr. Nelson interrupted to remark that the threat of the Senator from Ohio came with bad grace.

"I'm the judge of that," retorted Mr. Foraker. "I have served long enough in the Senate to know what is a reasonable request. We have made it and it has been denied."

The chamber was in commotion. Mr. Beveridge acquiesced and by unanimous consent the request of the House went over until Monday.

The agricultural and diplomatic and consular appropriation bills were sent to conference.

The Senate, sitting as a court of impeachment today, decided by an overwhelming vote not to admit in the Swayne case the testimony given before a House committee by Judge Swayne, the respondent in that trial.

Business in the Senate suspended this afternoon that members without regard to party might pay tribute to the memory of the late M. S. Quay of Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Quay and a party of friends occupied seats in the private gallery.

Tributes were delivered by Senators Penrose, Knox, Scott, Daniel, Gallinger, Spooner and others.

Similar services will be held in the House of Representatives Sunday.

HOUSE.

Chairman Wadsworth, of the agricultural committee, announced that the Senate had receded from its amendment to the agricultural appropriation bill. He moved that the House disagree to the other amendments and send the bill to conference. The desired action was taken.

The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was sent to conference and under an agreement private claims bills were then considered.

Jamestown Exposition.

The House committee on industrial arts and exposition gave a hearing yesterday to a delegation of negroes headed by Lawyer Giles Jackson, of Richmond, Va., and including representatives from Boston and Pittsburg, who urged an amendment to the bill providing government participation in the exposition to be held on and near the waters of Hampton Roads in 1907, generally known as the Jamestown Exposition. The amendment which they supported appropriates $200,000 for an exhibit of the industries of the colored race in this country. The committee took no action in the matter.

The Seventieth Regiment.

The Seventieth Virginia Infantry, through Colonel George Wayne Anderson, of Richmond, is sending out cards inviting its members and friends to take part in a celebration of Washington's birthday, February 22, 1905. The armory at Seventh and Marshall streets will be thrown open for an evening of enjoyment and at 8:30 p. m. the ceremonies will begin. There will be a battalion parade, a band concert and other features in honor of the great Virginian and founder of the United States.—News-Leader.

Banquet on the Twenty-second.

The Washington Birthday Association is making the final arrangements for their first annual dinner, to be held at the Elks social hall, on the twenty-second instant, at three o'clock. Invitations have been extended to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Senators Daniel and Martin, and Congressmen Rixey and Swanson. The following toasts will be responded to: Washington, Our Association, Our City, Our State and Our Country. Mayor Frederick J. Paff will act as toastmaster. An orchestra has been contracted for and vocal selections will be rendered by local talent. One hundred covers will be laid by the caterers, Messers. Rammel Brothers. The color scheme will be patriotically red, white and blue. Every person contributing to former celebrations are members of the association by virtue of their contributions. Cards for the dinner will be at the drug store of E. Warfield, jr., until Monday evening, when the sale will be withdrawn.

Death of Mr. Nugent.

Mr. John Nugent, an old and well-known resident, died at his home, on Duke street, between Patrick and Henry, shortly after midnight last night. The deceased was 60 years old and was born in Ireland. He leaves a widow and several children. Mr. Nugent was engaged in his usual vocations this week and his sudden death was a surprise to his many friends and acquaintances. He was of a quiet nature, and was justly regarded by all who knew him as a good citizen. Mr. Nugent had been in the employment of Mr. T. W. Robinson and his predecessors in the commission business since 1868, and during all those years had not lost 30 days from sickness or any other cause. His employers had ever found him faithful in all his duties.

Opera House.

The Tempest Dramatic Company last night presented "Our Dorothy" to a large audience. The show dealt with life on the farm and was well received. It was also "amateur night," and the contest was entered into by four persons. The first prize was won by two small white boys and the second and third by colored men. A feature of the contest was the piano playing of Prof. Jordan, of the Tempest Company, who played the cue music in a masterly manner. The matinee this afternoon was well attended. Tonight the attraction will be the Irish comedy, "Kitty O'Connor."

The River.

The ice in the river—save that in the track of steamers—presents no visible change, although the higher temperature of today has had its effect in softening it in some spots. The Norfolk steamers have not lost a trip this winter, and they are still running, although they are hours late in arriving at their destinations.

The old steamboat wharf at Colonial Beach, used by the freight lines on the Potomac, has been carried away by the ice, only the pier head and the warehouse on it being left standing. The wharf will be rebuilt as soon as possible.

Interesting Relic.

At the last regular meeting of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons Mr. L. Ruben, for Mrs. F. A. Coakley, presented to the lodge a pair of scales which were at one time used on the Mount Vernon estate. The scales were presented to Mrs. Coakley's grandfather by the late John A. Washington. The scales were accepted by the lodge and added to the many other interesting relics of Washington and Mount Vernon now in possession of the lodge.

Social Meeting.

The Westminister League of the Second Presbyterian Church will have their social meeting in the lecture room next Thursday night at 8 o'clock. All the congregation is invited, especially the young people. Misses Pierpont, Mary L. Moore, Lucy Graves, Mrs. Peter Lawrence, Miss Scott, Mrs. Mauder and Mrs. Wm. Campbell will take part in the exercises.

The Checks Came Back.

Some time ago a man came to this city soliciting advertisements for a golf book. He was quite successful and secured a number of orders. In several instances, after receiving pay in advance, he induced people to cash checks for him for sums ranging from two to ten dollars. A few days ago the checks came back marked worthless.

Anniversary of Wreck.

Tomorrow will be the twentieth anniversary of the terrible railroad accident at Four-mile run when several persons were killed and a freight train was wrecked and burned. What was then known as the "Louisville express" of the Southern Railway, northbound, collided with a southbound Washington-Southern freight train at the north end of the tunnel under the aqueduct of the old Alexandria canal. Both engines were demolished, that of the freight train having been thrown from the track and down the bank into the cove. Several tank cars were attached to the train and they exploding, the oil ran out on the creek which literally became a sea of fire. Everything combustible in the wreck was consumed, while the railroad track was warped and twisted out of shape. Mail and baggage cars of the passenger train were burned, but the Pullmans were uncoupled and pulled away from the wreck.

U. and V.

With the completion of the two new bank buildings on Fairfax and King streets, in the lettering on their respective fronts the old formation of the U, which is a modification of the Greek Y, appears to the present and rising generation as being an up-to-date V and has been the cause of much comment and some controversy. U and V in relation to each other, like the letters I and J, were formerly confounded in writing and printing and the discrimination between them has been of comparatively recent date. Webster says of the letter V that it is only a variety of the character by which the vowel U is denoted, the latter being in its origin the cursive character employed with soft material while V is better adapted for writing on stone. The letters were formerly used indiscriminately, the one for the other. They are still interchanged and confounded one for the other, though they have now as distinct uses as any other two letters in the alphabet.

Died from His Injuries.

James E. Richards, jr., who was run ovar by a north bound freight train of the Washington-Southern Railway on Fayette street, a short distance north of Duke, yesterday afternoon, died at the Alexandria hospital at an early hour this morning. As has been stated, his right arm was crushed at the shoulder. Those who witnessed the accident say that Richards attempted to board the moving train and slipped and fell, when his arm rested upon the rail. Ten freight cars, it is said, passed over the limb. Those who were in the vicinity at the time say the spectacle presented by the dismembered man as he lay on the ice and snow in his mangled condition was one long to be remembered. For a time no one seemed to have the nerve to go to his rescue. He was subsequently removed to a cellar door where he remained until the Alexandria Hospital ambulance arrived.

Fish Wharf.

The committee on public property advertise today the fish wharf for rent for one year from March 1, 1905. Some years ago it was only rented for nine months, and the sum paid was out of all proportion for the purposes for which it was used or the receipts from wharfage. Two years ago the City Council increased the lease from nine to twelve months. Last year Mr. Louis Brill indicated, as chairman of the committee on public property, that the wharf must bring a fair rental, and it brought $700, upon which no doubt the lessee received a profit. Council has passed a bill making an appropriation of $1,000 to increase the facilities for handling fish, and the committee should see that the wharf is not sold for a mere bagatelle, rejecting all bids if insufficient and report to Council on Tuesday, February 28.

Excitement in the Opera House.

About ten o'clock last night a difficulty occurred on the northern part of the first floor of the Opera House which caused a semi-panic, which would have resulted in a stampede had not attaches exhibited coolness. Two young white men became involved in a difficulty with a colored boy, and in the scuffle a woman shrieked and some one exclaimed "fire." Special Officer Chauncey repaired to the scene of the trouble and with Constable Cline and Officer Mayhugh placed the disorderly individuals under arrest and restored order. The case came up before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning. One of the white men who had been released on collateral failed to appear and forfeited $5. The others were fined a like amount.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Collins, arrested by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Roberts charged with stealing certain articles from an ark at the Dyke, was held for the Fairfax county authorities.

Walter Griffith, colored, charged with escaping from St. Elizabeth Asylum, was turned over to the authorities of that institution.

Two white youths and a colored boy, arrested by Officer Mayhugh, Special Officer Chauncey and Constable Cline charged with disorderly conduct at the Opera House, were fined $5 each.

Held for Fairfax Authorities.

As was stated in the Gazette, Lieutenant Smith and Officer Roberts yesterday arrested a man giving his name as John Collins who was attempting to dispose of guns, a telescope and other articles taken from a houseboat at the Dyke, belonging to a number of Alexandrians. Later the officers found other articles taken from the boat in an ark in Hunting creek. This morning Officers Roberts and Arrington went on another search for stolen goods and succeeded in finding more. It is believed that Collins has robbed several houseboats hereabouts. This morning Justice Caton held the prisoner for the Fairfax authorities.

Stolen Shoes Found.

Several boys from Washington arrived here yesterday on a freight train, alighting in the Washington-Southern Railway yard, opposite the cemeteries. In the absence of something else to employ their minds they began to dig in a pile of sand and while so engaged exhumed about 20 pairs of shoes. Each pair was in a separate box, and they had evidently been placed where found by thieves who had taken them from cars. The boys turned the shoes over to Yardmaster Colvin.

The Clements-Lyon Case.

A telephone message received at this office from the County Court House at 2 o'clock this evening, stated that Mr. J. E. Clements, who is charged with assaulting Mr. Frank Lyon with a pistol on Thursday, had not delivered himself up to the county authorities.

When Justice Hagan appeared at the courthouse yesterday morning to hear the case against Mr. Clements who, on a warrant sworn out by Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey, was charged with a felonious assault upon Mr. Lyon, Mr. Clements was not present, but was represented by Mr. R. C. L. Moncure. Mr. Lyon announced that the difficulty between Mr. Clements and himself was of a personal character, and that he preferred to settle such matters out of court. He stated that he had not only not asked for a warrant for Mr. Clements' arrest, but Mr. Mackey had acted against his protests and in spite of the fact that he had informed the Commonwealth's Attorney that he would go before the justice of the peace and declare himself the aggressor in the disturbance at the County Courthouse Thursday. After making this announcement, and declaring that he would not appear against Mr. Clements, Mr. Lyon left the courthouse. In the meantime, Mr. Clements was in Washington prepared to appear before Justice Hagan with his bondsmen, Messrs. Frank Hume, G. N. Saegmuller, and R. A. Phillips, but upon the advice of his counsel he remained without the jurisdiction of the court, as it was not fully understood whether bail would be accepted. In the meantime preparations were being made to procure from Judge Nicol, of the Circuit Court, a writ of habeas corpus, should Justice Hagan send Mr. Clements to jail. Finally, in the afternoon, Mr. Mackey concluded to change the charge against Mr. Clements from "felonious assault" to "carrying concealed weapons," and this case was continued to a date to be agreed upon hereafter. It is understood that Mr. Clement considers that he was technically held under restraint during the period that he was besieged in his office in Washington early yesterday morning by Mr. Mackey, Jailer Collins and a Washington policeman, and that he will enter suit in the District against Mr. Mackey for $25,000 for unlawful detention.

Personal.

Rev. H. W. Pratt, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Washington, and Rev. Dr. Brooke, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, will exchange pulpits tomorrow.

Mr. James R. Caton, jr., has left for a trip to New York, Boston and other northern cities.

Misses Sadie and Fannie Maris, formerly of this city, were the guests of Miss Eliza C. Adam, last Wednesday night.

Mr. William Darley and Miss Maggie M. Dove were married on Wednesday by Rev. J. A. Jeffers.

Mrs. Thomas S. Boswell, of Norfolk, is visiting Mrs. Edgar Warfield, on Fairfax street.

Mr C. C. Carlin left today for Richmond on professional business.

After the unveiling of the statue of Miss Frances E. Willard in the Capitol in Washington yesterday a large meeting was held in the Metropolitan Church, in that city, presided over by the National President of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Stephens. Representatives from the different States responded as the States were called, and Virginia was beautifully responded to by Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett and Mrs. Amy C. Weech, of this city.

Interchangeable Tickets

Reference to the interchange of local and commutation tickets between Washington and Alexandria, to have been effective February 19, has heretofore been made in the Gazette, but a letter received at this office this morning from the general agent of the Southern Railway Company says: "Owing to the printers not being able to ship new tickets before Monday, February 20, we shall not be able to inaugurate the interchange until February 28 (Thursday)."

Charged with Non-Support.

Walter Cault was arrested yesterday at the instance of his wife, Ida Cault, who charged him with neglecting to provide for her maintenance. Cault was taken before Justice Caton this morning who held him for the Fairfax authorities, the couple being residents of that county.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Alexandria Trades Council had a banquet at the Opera House cafe Thursday night. An enjoyable evening was spent by all who attended.

The weather was cold again last night, the mercury still being below the freezing point. The temperature today has been mild and the heavens clear.

The snow and ice that had accumulated along the tracks of the electric railway in this city is being removed in cars by that company and hauled outside the city limits.

The market this morning exhibited less animation than that of any Saturday this winter. The supply of country produce was noticeably slim. Butter sold at 25a 30c a pound and eggs at 25c a dozen. Poultry was scarce and high.

Robert Crandall, an itinerant, who, a few days ago was sent to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment, was to have been discharged as cured today, but just before he left that institution he became abusive to the matron. Officer Roberts was summoned and promptly arrested Crandall and took him to the station house where he was locked up.

Alexander Ogden, of Fairfax county, says he was robbed of $8 in the northwestern part of the city last night.

Free Clam Soup tonight at Ben's House, 114 north Fairfax street. Music. G. H. Hodges proprietor.

Gen. Fitz. Lee for Collector.

It is reported in Norfolk that President Roosevelt will, at the expiration of the terms of the incumbents, appoint Gen. Fitzhugh Lee collector of the ports of Norfolk and Portmouth, and Col. William Lamb, postmaster of the city of Norfolk. The collectorship pays $8,000 annually and the Norfolk postoffice pays $3,600 per year.

Major R. G. Banks, the present collector, has been in office since the first McKinley administration, and is what is known as an old Virginia republican organizationist, as opposed to the new republican element in Virginia, led by Congressman Campbell Slemp, of the Ninth district. Capt. H. B. Nicols, the present postmaster, is serving his first term.

Five men were killed and twenty injured at the Lyttle colliery at Minersville, Pa., this morning. The men were descending in a cage, the bottom of which fell out, precipitating them to the bottom of the shaft hundreds of feet below.

Benefit Monday Night.

As there are only a few more reserved tickets left it behooves those who wish to see the presentation of the familiar drama "Ten Nights in a Barroom" to get them right away. As has been said before this benefit is tendered Mr. Wayne Beyers, a well known citizen of the First ward and a former operator on a Washington paper who has been incapacitated from the performance of his duties for at least two years. The financial success of the entertainment is assured, but those who have interested themselves would like to see every seat on the lower floor and gallery taken. The rehearsals have been all that could be expected, and the company intends to give the audience more than they really expect. It is for a worthy cause and for this reason has elicited the support of some of our best citizens, who have been untiring in their efforts to fill the house. No disorder of any character will be allowed either on the lower floor or in the gallery and ladies can be assured as much comfort as well in one seat as the other. Each citizen should help the cause by the purchase of a ticket, even though he may not be able to attend. The following will take part: Caste—Sample Switchel, A. D. Deetos; Simon Slade, Harry Fleischmann; Joe Morgan, E. R. Boyer; Harvey Green, Jacob Brill; Frank Slade, Geo. H. Hayden; Mr. Romaine, David Robey; Willie Hammond, Frank C. Spinks; Mrs. Slade, Miss Willie Ma Hammersley; Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Eleanor Newton Buckler; Mary Morgan, Miss Minnie Zimmerman; Mehitable Cartright, Miss Queenie Barond; Solomon Levi, the peddlar, Jonah Bernheimer. The following specialties will be introduced: Alexandria Ideal Musical Club, Mr. W. W. Wellington, director; Capt. J. V. Davis, recitation; Mr. P. F Downey, solo; Mr. Robt. Wenzel, solo. The orchestra music will be under the direction of Mr. Carlton Padgett.

Five lives were lost in a fire which destroyed the home of Samuel Antworth, at Howebrook, Me. The dead are: Mrs. Antworth, 22 years old, and her two children; Mrs. John Shorey, and her little daughter. It is known how the fire started.

Fiendish Suffering

is often caused by sores, ulcers and cancers, that eat away your skin. Wm. Bedell, of Flat Rock, Mich., says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for Ulcers, Sores and Cancers. It is the best healing dressing I ever found." Soothes and heals cuts, burns and scalds. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; guaranteed.

Nothing Equals Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. P. B. Spears, of Pinchard, Ala, has become acquainted with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and uses it in his own family and in his practice. He says: "It beats any preparation I have ever seen for all bowel complaints, I do not think of recommending any other, and also use it with my own children." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Sunshine of Spring.

The Salve that cures without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Cuts, Burns, Boils, Bruises and piles disappear before the use of this salve as snow before the sunshine of spring. Miss H. M. Middleton, Thebes, Ill. says; "I was seriously afflicted with a fever sore that was very painful. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in less than a week." Get the genuine. Sold by all druggists.

Interchange of Local and Commutation Tickets between the R., F. & P. and Washington-Southern Railway and Southern Railway between Alexandria and Washington.

Beginning next Thursday, Feb. 23th, an arrangement has been made whereby local tickets between Washington and Alexandria and all classes of commutation tickets between same points will be good on any of the trains of the Southern Railway carrying coaches and on any of the trains of the Washington-Southern Railway carrying coaches, tickets being interchangeable on either line as above.

is one of the main symptoms of that terrible disease called Rheumatism, which makes life a daily torture to many thousands.

HAMLINS

is a treatment which affords a positive cure for rheumatism and allied diseases.

Applied externally, it relieves the pain at once. Taken internally, it cures permanently by purifying the blood of the lactic acid which causes the disease.

Anthony Smith, of Mayville, Ill., says: "I had such severe rheumatic pains in my arm and shoulder that I could neither work nor sleep and was fast losing all hope of cure, when I heard of and tried Hamlins Wizard Oil, two bottles of which performed a perfect, permanent cure." Price, 50c and $1.

The Consumers' Store

Is now stocked with the best line of FRUITS, VEGETABLES AND DAIRY PRODUCTS procurable. We direct your attention to our T. C. King, Sheep Nose, Spy Apples and California Navel Oranges, which are especially fine specimens. We have recently unloaded a car of this fruit and before advertising it we have sold some of it to our best trade, and have been complimented on having such delicious apples and oranges. This store has sold an enormous quantity of apples by the barrel, especially to the consumers to whom we cater; now we wish to sell you oranges by the box, oranges which will keep and are sweet, juicy and lower priced than anywhere else.

Plenty of Baldwin Apples here at $2.25 per barrel; 30c peck.

NOTICE—At a Corporation Court for the city of Alexandria, held on the 1st day of February, 1905, at the courthouse of said city:

George A. Smith, complainant, vs. The Alexandria Shoe Manufacturing Company, incorporated, defendant. In chancery and attachment.

EXTRACT FROM DECREE:

It is further adjudged, ordered and decreed that this cause be and the same is herely referred to Robinson Moncure, esq., as a special commissioner, who shall state and report to the court on account of all liens upon the property and estate of the defendant corporation with their priorities, and also an account of all the indebtedness of said corporation of what kind soever, to whom due and payable and in what amounts.

It is further adjudged, ordered and decreed that the said special commissioner may give notice of the time and place of taking the accounts herein before ordered by publication once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a convenient newspaper, which is published and printed in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, and that such publication shall be equivalent to personal service of such notice on the parties to this cause.

Law Office of Robinson Moncure,
Alexandria, Va., (over Alex. Nat'l Bank.)
8th day of February, 1905.

The parties interested in the decree, from which the foregoing is an extract, will take notice that, on the 11th day of March, 1905, at my office, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the city of Alexandria, Va., I shall proceed to execute the same when and where they are required to attend with such books, papers, vouchers and evidence as will enable me to comply with the order of the court.

A Tree Distillery.

On the Canary islands grows a fountain tree, a tree most needed in some parts of the islands. It is said that the leaves constantly distill a quantity of water that is sufficient to furnish drink to every living creature in Hiero, nature having provided this remedy for the drought of the island. Every morning near this part of the island a cloud of mist arises from the sea, which the winds force against the steep cliff on which this tree grows, and it is from the mist that the tree distills the water.

Proved It.

"My wife will bear witness," said the prisoner at the bar, "that at the very time I am accused of burglarizing Mr. Smith's premises I was engaged in walking the floor with my infant child in my arms, endeavoring to soothe it by singing 'Rock-a-by, Baby.'"

"The prisoner is discharged," remarked his honor. "He can prove a lullaby."

Waiting Instead of Going.

The art in life is to sit still and to let things come toward you, not to go after them or even to think that they are in flight. How often I have chased some divine shadow through a whole day till evening, when, going home tired, I have found the visitor just turning away from my closed door.—Arthur Symons in Saturday Review.

Your Advertising.

See that your clerks know all about your advertising plans. Some clerks would never know that you were advertising if you waited for them to read the advertisements voluntarily.—American Advertiser.

There is no great genius without a tincture of madness.—Seneca.

An Enormous Sundial.

A curious phenomenon is reported in the columns of a geographical publication. It is a large promontory in the Aegean sea, known as Hayon Horoo, which extends 3,000 feet above the level of the water. As the sun swings around, the shadow of this mountain touches one by one a circle of islands separated by regular intervals, which act as hour marks. It is the largest sundial in the world.

Some Hope For Him.

Young Sorreltop—Then you utterly cast me off, Esmeralda? Miss Esmeralda (with great gentleness)—Why, no, Sylvester. But—but it would be so silly for a girl to say yes the first time. If—if you are of the same mind you might ask me again some day, you know.—Chicago Tribune.

Cut Off at Bargain Rates.

Percy—Young Rapidgait had hard luck. He was disinherited recently. Harold—Cut off without a dollar, eh? Percy—No. His mother did the disinheriting. He was cut off with 98 cents. —Pittsburg Post.

All the More Annoying.

"But his statement about you is a tissue of malicious lies, is it not?"

"No; it's a very substantial combination of malicious lies, with a tissue of malicious truth."—Philadelphia Ledger.

An acre of good fishing ground will yield more food in a week than an acre of the best land will in a year.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach; liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store; price 50c.

Perfect Confidence.

Where there used to be a feeling of uneasiness and worry in the household when a child showed symptoms of croup, there is now perfect confidence. This is owing to the uniform success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the treatment of that disease. Mrs. M. I. Basford, of Poolesville, Md., in speaking of her experience in the use of that remedy says: "I have a world of confidence in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for I have used it with perfect success. My child Garland is subject to severe attacks of croup and it always gives him prompt relief." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.

Give Your Stomach a Rest.

Your food must be properly digested and assimilated to be of any value to you. If your stomach is weak or diseased take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest, enabling it to recuperate, take on new life and grow strong again. Kodol cures sour stomach, gas, bloating, heart palpitation and all digestive disorders. Sold by all druggists.

Bad breath, belching of gas and sour risings are due to Indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a guaranteed cure. L. A. Soper of Little Rock, Ky., writes us: "We feel that Kodol Dyspepsia Cure deserves all the commendations that can be given it, as it saved the life of our little girl when she was three years old. She is now six and we have kept it for her constantly, but of course she only takes it now when any thing disagrees with her." Kodol is the best medicine in the world for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. A trial of this greatest of all digestants will convince any who suffers. Good for young or old. Sold by all druggists

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
